Application form
Exemption of split property

The table below is only to be filled in by the applicant for exemption.
It will be possible to apply for exemption in the following cases:

- The time past since the divorce was finalized is less than two years, and the applicant is about to marry again.
- It will however not be necessary to apply for exemption, if the applicant can present a declaration from the former spouse that a split of private property has been performed, or that there was nothing to split.

The declaration must be presented directly to the national register.
